

Kodály Society of Ireland

in association with
St. Patrick's College, Drumcondra
presents

Active Music Making: The Kodály Approach

Intensive professional development course for

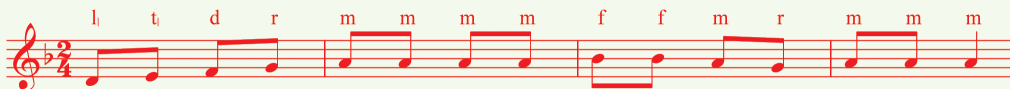

- primary teachers
- post-primary music teachers
- vocal and instrumental teachers
- conductors, singers and performers

12th–16th July, 2010

at St. Patrick's College, Drumcondra, Dublin 9

Graded musicianship (solfège), conducting classes (basic to advanced), teaching method workshops, choral singing and chamber music will form the core activities. Vocal tuition (optional). The course will conclude with a participants' concert.

Renowned Hungarian teachers and choral conductors Ildikó Herboly Kocsár, Dr. László Nemes, Zoltán Pad and Sarolta Plattly will be members of the faculty.

Further information online: www.kodalyireland.com
Email: roisin@kodalyireland.com